Vocational Education and Career-Based Programs (Use of Financial Resources to Off-Set Cost)

Section 1. General. It is the policy of East Allen County Schools that, should community or school corporation resources be available to offset the cost to students or their parents of financial participation in any vocational education or career-based program, that such resources will be available equally to all students in a particular program without regard to gender, race, color, national origin or disability.