1. DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. EDUCATIONAL YOUTH SUMMIT

The Indiana Civil Rights Commission in conjunction with the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Indiana Holiday Commission cordially invite your school, grades 6 - 12, to attend the 20th annual statewide Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Educational Youth Summit. This year’s summit will take place Thursday, January 13, 2011, from 9:30 AM - 12:00 noon. The event will be held at the Indiana State Museum located at 650 W. Washington Street in Indianapolis.

During the Youth Summit, students will be divided into three groups and will be guided through a video presentation highlighting famous speeches of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. See Enclosure # 1.

2. WEB LESSON PLANS

Enclosure # 2 is the East Allen County School requirements for Secondary Web Lesson Plans and Elementary Newsletters. The elementary newsletters should continue as they have in the past as far as content in the newsletter. I would expect every teacher to create their own and not just put a few lines in a group newsletter.

3. 911 CALLS

From this time forward all 911 calls made from any building in EACS shall be made without accessing an outgoing line. Failure to follow this procedure could cause improper logistical information to be displayed at the call center and impede an emergency response.

As a reminder, anyone placing a 911 call shall remain on the line until the call center personnel give a directive to end the call.

If you hit outgoing and then dial 911 it will display 1000 Prospect Avenue at Park Hill and then we have to try and guess which of 18 facilities really needed the help.

4. FOCUS ON ABILITY

On November 16th, Metropolitan Human Relations Commission and Northeast Indiana Disability Advocacy Coalition will host a celebration of the 20th Anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act. See Enclosure # 2 for more information.

5. UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN

As you know, the EACS United Way Campaign began on Monday. There have been technical difficulties with the on-line donation process. The United Way staff is working hard to correct the issue. You still have until November 12th to give. Also, don’t forget the district-wide “Jean Day” – Thursday, Nov. 11th. Wear a pair of jeans for a buck (another way to raise money for United Way).

Secondary Web Lesson Plans or Elementary Newsletters

The East Allen County Schools expectations for teachers posting their lesson plans or newsletters on-line are as follows:

1. If you teach in a secondary building it is expected that you will complete web lesson plans each week. If you teach in an elementary building it is expected that you will complete a newsletter each week.

2. Web lesson plans/newsletters are to be updated by the first day of the school week by 8:30 a.m. Normally this would be Monday unless school is cancelled or we have a vacation day like MLK Jr. Day. In the event of a 2 hour delay the deadline would move to 10:30 a.m.

3. Web lesson plans/newsletters are to be posted one week at a time. Teachers are welcome to post additional lessons/newsletters ahead of time but the EACS expectation is that they are posted weekly.

4. This will align all buildings expectations across the district and there are to be no exceptions.

5. Web lesson plans/newsletters should include the specific homework assignments and the due dates. This allows parents to make sure homework is completed in the evening and sent back to school.

6. The principal is responsible for monitoring web lesson plans/newsletters for completion and posting to the web site.

1. THANK YOU TO ALL SUPPORTERS

Thank you to all who have been supportive and have worked hard for East Allen County Schools. Change is difficult for everyone, but many of you see the opportunities for EACS to return to prominence in the State with our curriculum efforts, our Redesign and our aggressive academic and program agenda. With the state moving to the growth model, the accountability for all of us increases in what we do for children every day. Keep up the good work!
