Seniors should be in attendance on Friday, May 31.

26th Annual New Challenges ★ New Solutions Crime Victims’ Rights: 3K and 5K Run / Walk

National Crime Victims’ Rights Week NCVRW is being observed April 21-27, 2013. This year’s theme, New Challenges, New Solutions — reflects the increasingly complex challenges we face in our efforts to find smarter and better ways to serve victims, and reach every victim in need. This commemorative week had been set aside since 1981, to honor crime victims and the first responders, advocates and counselors, and others who assist them in their time of need, and the law enforcement personnel who work to bring offenders to justice. The FWPD, Victim Assistance office is privileged to serve as a partner in finding “new solutions” to the “new challenges” we face.

This is a NON– Competitive Event!

Congratulations Rosa!

2. POEM PUBLISHED IN TEEN MAGAZINE

Kaitlyn Miguel, a student at East Allen University has written a poem that will be published in Teen Ink Print Magazine. Read her poem below:

It feels as if I've never wanted dreams, maybe because they're just too much for me.

I wouldn't be able to handle them on my own.

I would never be accomplished, let alone desired.

I still wish I was whoever you were with; stop holding the fragile girl so close.

She will never know what I've done to save you.

Only if you had known that you had meant the most.

Everything should be all right, but I know it's not, and it will never be.

The scars have traveled so deep, I feel rooted to the spot.

My veins have been strung so tight, it's like I almost forgot how much you meant to me.

Congratulations Kaitlyn!

3. TOP ACT SCORE

Justin Stuckey, senior at Leo Jr. Sr. High School, has earned the highest possible composite score of 36 on the ACT college admission and placement exam.

On average, less than one-tenth of one percent of all test takers earn the top score. Among ACT-tested U.S. high school graduates in the class of 2012, only 781 out of more than 1.66 million students earned a composite score of 36.

Way to go Justin!
