

Fourth of July (Independence Day)

In the summer, we celebrate the Fourth of July.
On the Fourth of July, we celebrate that the United States of America is independent.
Fourth of July is also called Independence Day.

Fourth of July

Independence Day has been celebrated for a very long time!
The first Independence Day was celebrated in July 1776.
On the Fourth of July there are a lot of celebrations.
People like to have fun on the Fourth of July.

United States

There are parades and fireworks. Sometimes there is music.
Sometimes fireworks are loud, but can be fun to watch.
If the parades or fireworks are too loud, people can wear headphones or try to watch them from far away or on tv.

fireworks

Some people have picnics and parties.
People hang American Flags.
People wear red, white, and blue because they are proud to be American.
There are different ways to celebrate and have fun.
Fourth of July is a fun holiday to celebrate with family and friends!

celebrate

